CASA EL ARTE DE LA HOSTELERÍA DELFÍN

A detailed view of a Laguiole folding knife. The blade is partially unfolded, showing a serrated edge. The blade is engraved with "LAGUIOLE", "Jean Dubois", and "FRANCE". The handle is made of a light-colored material, possibly bone or resin, and features a silver-colored metal bolster and a silver-colored metal clip. The knife is shown against a white background.

A high-quality Laguiole pocket knife is shown. The blade is large and made of polished stainless steel, featuring the 'Laguiole' brand name in a cursive script. The handle is made of a light-colored, textured material, possibly bone or resin, with three silver-colored rivets. The knife is partially open, showing the blade's edge and the handle's construction.
